FACULTY

THE ADMINISTRATION PROVIDES LEADERSHIP

As Superintendent of Public Schools, Dr. Ralph Horsman, working with members of the community and school board, supervised the Mt. Lebanon school system and correlated the programs of study from the grade schools through the high school.

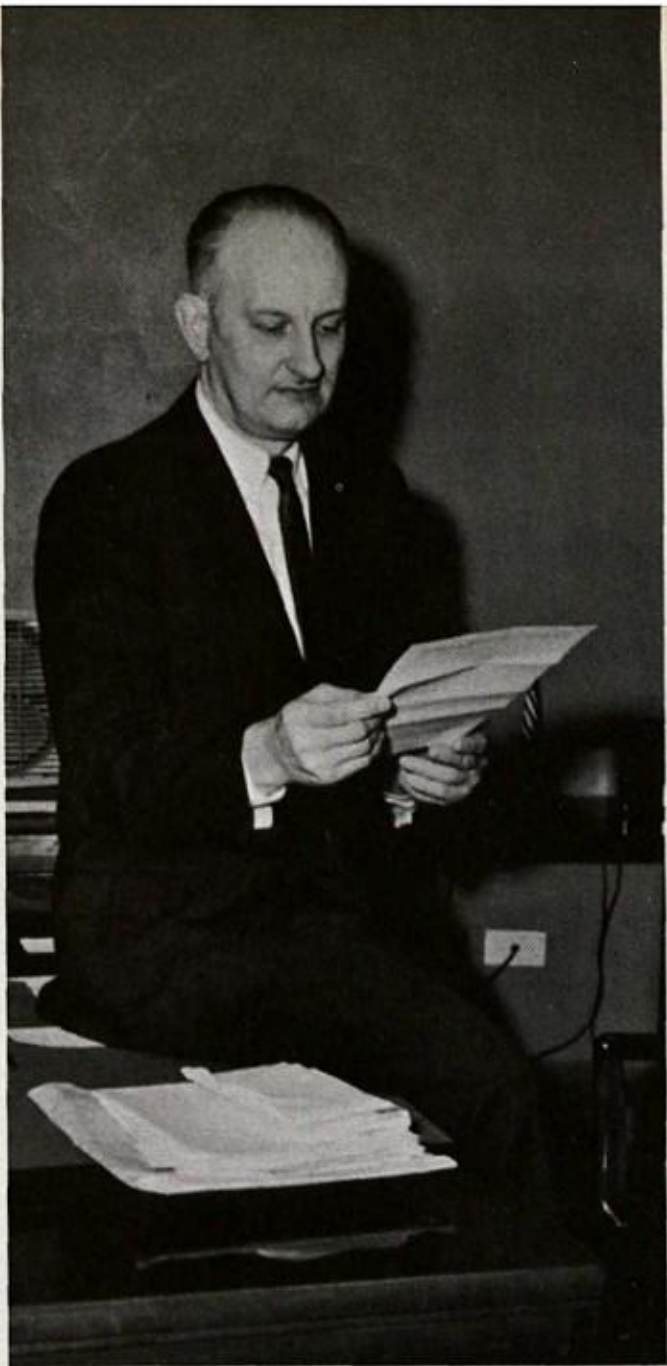

Dr. Joseph Keifer aided in educational supervision and fulfilled numerous administrative responsibilities as the Assistant Superintendent of Mt. Lebanon Public Schools.

Through an extensive academic and extracurricular program, the administration of Mt. Lebanon High School offered us a broad education. Administrators faced the challenge of coordinating and guiding faculty and student activities, and their effective leadership helped to maintain Mt. Lebanon's high standards.

Dr. Floy Penn, director of instruction for Mt. Lebanon Township Schools, co-ordinated curriculum, managed the testing program, and helped students and parents with problems.

Along with his regular administrative duties, Dr. Nelson Mills, the principal of Mt. Lebanon High School, constantly challenged us with our responsibilities, congratulated us on our achievements, and shared with us a deep pride in our school.

In providing for the welfare of the students, Mrs. Geraldine H. Morgan supervised safety drills, registered attendance, and helped maintain student discipline.

As vice-principal, Mr. Ralph W. McDermot planned and adjusted schedules, determined class rank, registered new students, compiled college transcripts, and helped maintain student discipline.

In cooperation with the administration and the community, the school board constructed and maintained the high standards of our educational program. The members are ROW 1: Mrs. June Greene Cameron, Mr. Robert F. Dyson, Pres., Mr. Otis C. Hogsett, Mr. Samuel A. Schreiner, Jr., Solicitor. ROW 2: Mr. Willis A. Siegfried, Mr. William A. Miller, Mr. James L. Daniell, Mr. William J. Bates, Mr. Robert E. Lauterbach, Mr. James R. Orr. Missing from the picture is Miss Miriam Headley, Sec.

Mrs. Margaret Cargill and Miss Janice Melinger directed our school's many activities, assisted our foreign exchange students, and served as advisers for Student Court and Student Congress.

Mr. D. Moore, school psychologist, Miss Ruth Gordon, home-school visitor, and Miss Marjorie A. Scanlon, speech correctionist, worked with individual student problems.

The nurses, Miss Fern L. High and Miss Patricia Croke, supervised the medical squad, scheduled student physical examinations, and helped us through the bouts with crutches and sniffles.

The guidance department assisted us in planning schedules, selecting colleges, and choosing careers. The four members are Mrs. Ferne W. Horne, who directed the department; Miss Mildred Frobouck, who counseled the seniors; Mr. C. William Holman, who served as junior counselor; and Mr. John B. Hillenbrand, the sophomore counselor.

Mrs. Delores B. Vroble and Mrs. Jane H. Booth efficiently managed the secretarial work of Dr. Mills' office and took care of the finances of administration and student activities.

The secretaries, Mrs. Leneta E. Daniels, Mrs. Margaret Steffans, Mrs. Helen W. Irwin, and Miss Ruth Wass, composed and compiled many forms for college transcripts, grades, attendance, and testing programs.

The English department teaches us the skills of communication and the value of literary appreciation. Writing a composition on nature or giving an oral review of The Old Man and the Sea teaches us the many skills of self-expression. Reading "The Highwayman" or "The Runaway" orally and enacting scenes from Antigone or Macbeth, we learn to appreciate the aesthetic qualities of literature. Our minds mature through the use of language, which we learn to perfect and appreciate through English courses.

STUDENT CONGRESS DEVELOPS LEADERS

"But how many words

JKL;?"

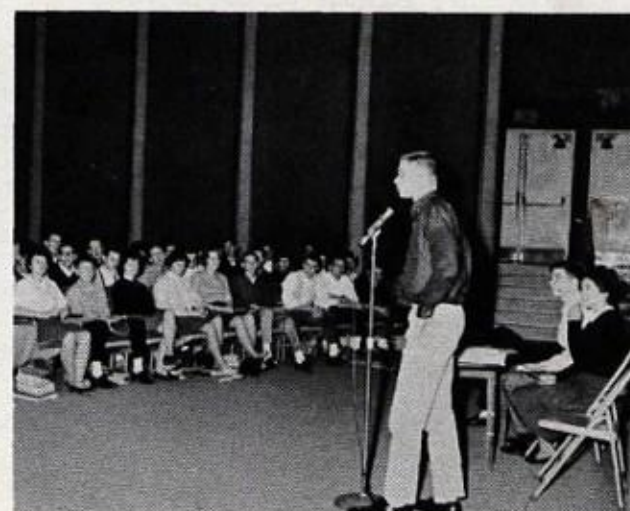

With the gavel, Bob Bennett accepts the responsibilities of the second semester president from first semester president, Dave Klaber.

Kainosh Amirjahed presents to our library a book written by her father. The book contains his poems, compositions, and biography and discusses Iranian music.

American Field Service inspires interest and participation in Student Congress.

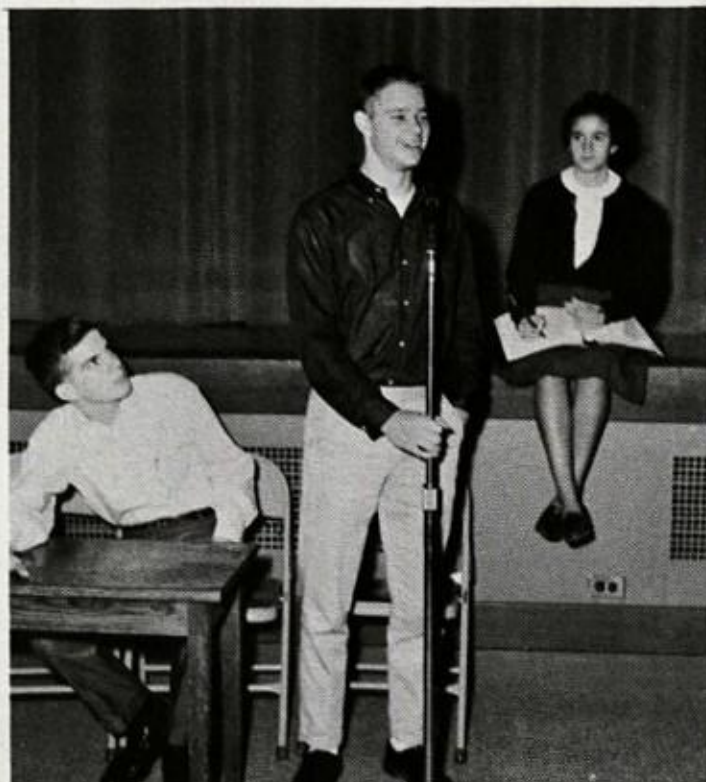

The president talks to an attentive Congress concerning the new foreign exchange program.

Student Congress Candidates for the Spring Semester

Candidates campaign while students ponder.

During 1961-62, the two Student Congresses accomplished several worthwhile projects, among which were the decision to adopt the International Fellowship Program, the formation of a new installation service for the Congress, and the decision to raise money for the American Field Service Students. Other business at the Tuesday morning meetings included discussion concerning school pennants and reports from standing committees on the smoking problem and the senior project. Officers, members, and students gained valuable experience in democratic government while fulfilling their responsibilities and making the fall and spring congresses successful.

Able administrators of the first semester Student Congress were: Vice-President, John Martin; President, Dave Klaber; and Secretary, Sue Oram.

As they begin their terms of office in the second semester, President Bob Bennett and Vice-President Dave Manooagian lend a helping hand to Secretary Ed Russ.

Activities award winners from the senior class were ROW 1: L. Fassett, J. Flemm, C. Finelli, S. Hanke, B. Ehlers, C. Harness, J. Alexander. ROW 2: K. Seay, E. Karnofsky, A. Langreth, K. Bingham, M. Service, S. Oram, L. Ricca. ROW 3: S. Moore, D. Kline, C. Anderson, P. Yeager, A. Dempsey, J. Ferguson, A. Orr. ROW 4: K. Weldon, J. Kanters, B. Bayers, V. Manuel, K. Coleman. ROW 5: B. Offutt, S. Early, G. Heron, D. Manoogian, J. Martin. ROW 6: I. Kunic, J. Dittmar, D. Delisi, K. Kurtz, S. Moore, and F. Sargent.

Conferring with Dr. Mills on pertinent school problems, the Advisory Council members for 1961-1962 included Miss Dean, Mrs. Cargill, Dr. Mills, Mrs. Morgan, Miss Roegge, and Mr. Whipkey representing the faculty; and Kip Weldon, Fred Jones, Dave Klaber, Bob Bennett, Chuck Kenrick, Bonnie Ehlers, Judy Kerr, and Cathy O'Connor representing the student body.

Maria Revesz and Babs Seamans received activities keys and guards at the end of their junior year for outstanding participation in school activities.

Recipients of special awards were John Negele, Renssalaer Award; Sandi Moore, Bausch-Lomb Award; and Sue Oram, Daughters of the American Revolution Award.

THE LOG REFLECTS THE FACE OF MT. LEBANON

Every night after school, the editorial staff devoted time and energy to produce this yearbook. Log editors Sue Wilson, Babs Seamens, Harriet Good, Candy Harness, Jean Alexander, and Don Delisi were responsible for the book from the title page to the Alma Mater.

"Here's to Big Boys and the 1962 Log!"

A pseudo-Eucalyptus tree, college and high school yearbooks, a typewriter, a desk, a table, and four chairs usually occupied the Log office. However, layouts, pictures, untyped captions, sizing rulers, black pens, scissors, a thesaurus, an adviser, eight editors, six editorial assistants, and staff workers also crowded into the busy room, where hours of labor and cartons of candy produced the yearbook. The many thousands of faces which passed in and out of the office on film and in print were the ones who really created the 1962 Log—a photodrama of Mt. Lebanon's year.

Learning the "yearbook trade" was the goal of the editorial assistants, who helped the editors lay out pages, plan and size pictures, and write captions. Preparing to take over the editorship next year, assistants were Sue Anderson, Caryn Mather, adviser Miss Hughes, Gail Scott, Alan London, Britta Schein, and Susan Hill.

Kathy Taylor, Bethann Thornburgh, Nancy Mayberry, and Pam McKinley supplied artistic talent for the yearbook sales posters, layouts, and the cover design.

The Log photographers snapped pictures of Mt. Lebanon High School's many faces. The staff consisted of Tom Howell, Bob Felt, Bruce Fellows, Mark Fowler, and Rick Hofmann.

↓ The sales campaign, finances, and circulation of the Log were under the management of Ralph Pinkus, Lee Willis, Phyllis Yeager, and Cathy Anderson.

↑ The literary staff, Mimi Aerni, Ann Sherman, Priscilla Larson, Kathy Bingham, Tom Copeland, and John Negele, composed write-ups, captions, and headlines for the pages of the Log.

Checking schedules and writing copy for the sports section were the tasks of the sports staff. Jackie Kramer, Rick Collins, Gary Collins, Ray Whiteman, and Don Parsons were members.

Preparing senior polls, planning the classes section, and organizing the senior directory were the responsibilities of the classes staff. Members were Bonnie Ehlers, Jamie Hiestand, Joan Archer, Jane Hammerschlag, and Nancy Detwiler.

LANTERN PUBLISHES LEBO'S NEWS

Editors Sue McCoy, Ann Wharton, Cora Sue Deal, Nancy Cameron, and Geoff Heron supervised the work of the various Lantern staffs in the production of the layouts, stories, pictures, and headlines for our school newspaper.

News, features, sports—all combined to mirror a year of exciting events in the Lebanon Lantern. The Devilette, a supplementary feature, added the news of prom dates and pet peeves to the journalism of the regular paper. Last spring, the Lantern won the Pitt Award in competition with other high school papers. This year's staff spent many hours gathering news of basketball games, writing stories about the sophomore of the month, proofreading copy concerning the senior play, and distributing the Lantern to subscribers. Editors and staffs strove to again publish an award-winning newspaper.

Nancy Bolton, Barbara Haas, Penny Kraber, Brenda Peterman, and Betty Beardshall were members of the business staff of the Lantern. This staff conducted the sales campaign and circulation and finances of the newspaper.

Miss McLaughlin confers with reporter Jane Ferguson about an assignment.

Mark Hammond efficiently managed the mimeographing for the Devilette.

The Devilette staff supervised the collection and organization of the humorous and interesting school chatter of the Lantern supplement. Members were Joyce Tutty, Cheryl McCann, Cora Sue Deal, Sandy Berg, and Judy Mulach.

MOUNTY TOURS A LITERARY WONDERLAND

Mounty artists, Kathy Oermann and John Negele, designed the Mounty covers and illustrated the literary articles in the magazine.

The Mounty began its year with a sales campaign starring Alice and her Wonderland associates. Once the campaign closed, the staff strove to fulfill the campaign promises of larger print and an extra issue. After school, the Mounty cubicle in the publications office buzzed with editors selecting articles to be printed, artists submitting illustrations, and typists completing their assignments. The Mounty typewriter lacked a competent "s" key, thus producing -entence-with a mi--ing letter-. But when the last issue had been distributed, the staff had successfully published five editions of the magazine and had upheld its high literary standards.

Thoughtful literary criticism and accurate typing must go into each Mounty article.

Mounty typists Marcia Wood and Lynn Saul typed poems, stories, and essays for publication in the magazine.

As business manager of the Mounty, Ann Sherman handled circulation, sales, and general finances.

The Mounty editors spent many hours reading student manuscripts, from which they compiled and edited selections for the magazine. This year's editors were Sandi Moore, Miriam Grove, Jim Evans, and George Dillon.

SPIRIT AND PRECISION SPARK THE BAND'S SEASON

Drum major Art Tripp pauses before signaling the band to begin.

Jack Walker, student director, gained experience in band leadership by directing the band during practice sessions.

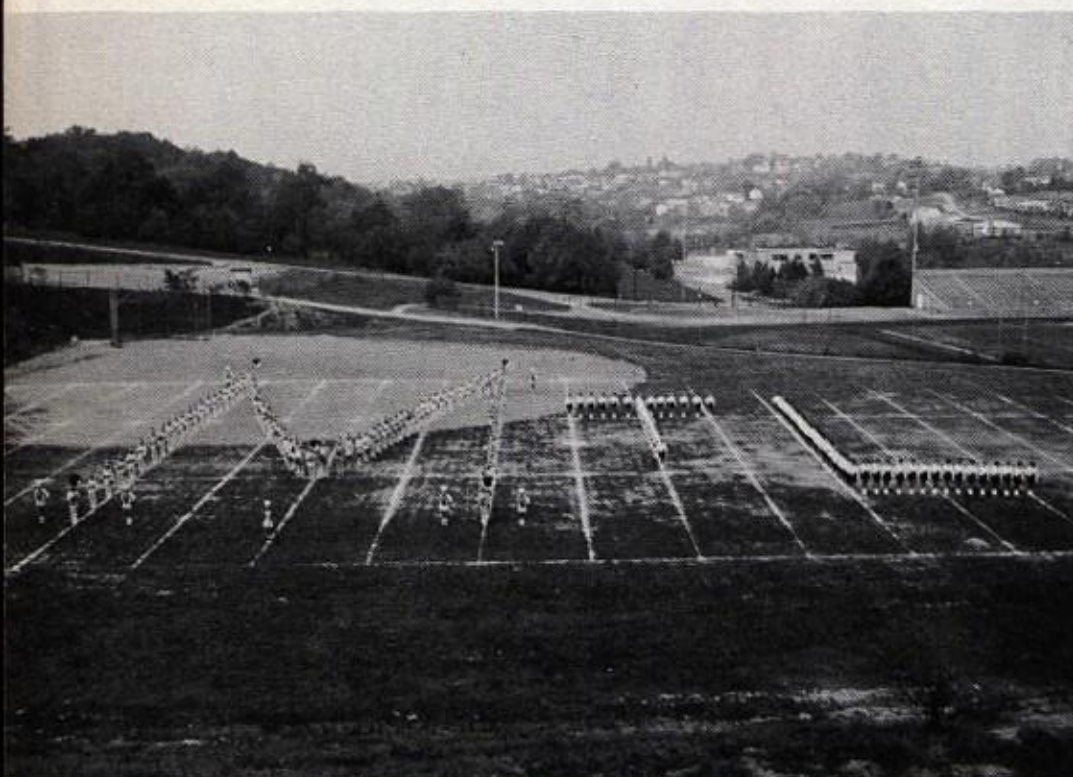

Mt. Lebanon's blue and white marches across the fifty-yard line.

The Pittsburgh Junior Chamber of Commerce honored this year's Mt. Lebanon High School Band with the entertainment award of the year. The 1961-1962 band, including a large percentage of new members, performed on the football field and on the concert stage under the leadership of Mr. Philip R. Prutzman. Bandmembers stepped onto the field, knees and spirits high, each week during football season to present a show of precision marching, unique formation, and enjoyable music. This summer, the band will culminate its year's activities by participating in Mt. Lebanon's fiftieth anniversary celebration.

Mr. Philip R. Prutzman, Mt. Lebanon bandmaster, provided the leadership which made the band, Rockettes, and majorettes a marching musical unit.

The Rockettes of the 1961-62 Mt. Lebanon marching unit were: ROW 1: B. Thornburgh, K. Bingham, C. Willison, B. Peterman, C. Bateman. ROW 2: P. Yeager, J. Ferguson, G. Burkett, S. Howley, K. Uddstrom. Jan,
The best of everything to a member of the good ol' 7-4's Didn't we have a ball? Remember our great 1st period study hall.
Good luck (you'll need it) to a really cute girl. I mean it.
Love,
Carmela

UNITED EFFORTS CREATE HARMONIC PRECISION

From "Elegie" to "Exodus," the Mt. Lebanon High School Orchestra presented a wide variety of music for the enjoyment of many audiences. In the fall, the orchestra, under the professional direction of Mr. Arthur Yagello, gave a concert for the Pennsylvania Music Association Convention in Harrisburg. The student body applauded the musical ability of the orchestra at the senior play, the spring concert, and an assembly. In March, the student musicians entertained Mt. Lebanon citizens with the Grieg "Concerto in A Minor," "March from Carmen," and "Satirical Dance" at the annual Orchestra Festival. Throughout a year of practicing and performing, both the orchestra and its audiences gained a better understanding and appreciation of music.

Rapt attention is reflected on the face of an orchestra member.

The violin section of the orchestra included: ROW 1: C. Hahn, C. Peterson, E. Singer, and J. Leonard. ROW 2: D. Schwartz, J. Welinsky, H. Sparks, and K. Miller. ROW 3: S. Kurtz, M. Nelson, N. Posts, J. Wilson, and R. Kanarack. ROW 4: K. Guess, B. Benz, V. Kuleck, B. Wolf, J. Spiezde, and K. Miller.

Participating in the violinettes were: C. Hahn, S. Kurtz, M. Adams, M. Service, M. Nelson, and C. Petersen.

The woodwinds and brass sections were composed of: ROW 1: Jim Evans, Jeannie Orr, Frances Black, Claudia Bentz, and Bruce Wray. ROW 2: Margie MacKay, Sue Wilson, Jean Wiest, Anne Burt, and Carol Resnick. ROW 3: Carol Wolfe, Steve Moore, Tom Jones, and Bob Spooner. ROW 4: Russ Rahn, Dick Studley, John Pfann, Jim Campbell, Rick Johnson, and Tom Phillips.

The strings section, not including the violins, was composed of: ROW 1: Martha Crump, Dwight Magowen, Ellen Karnofsky, and Marcia Service. ROW 2: Mary Adams, Mary Weil, and Bev DeWitt.

Members of the percussion section were: Roger Goodman, Margaret Schilberg, Donna Klein, Mary Weil, and Ed Stahl.

Under the direction of Mr. Arthur Yagello, the sections unified to produce orchestral music for the enjoyment of many audiences.

Chosen for the Boys' Quartet this year were Bob Graves, John Martin, Kip Weldon, Roy Abernethy, accompanist, Nick Mager, Bob Chilcoat, and Chuck Womack.

VOICES BLEND INTO SONG

Members of the Girls' Ensemble were: ROW 1: D. Kline, B. Lunardini, J. Heid, N. Bolton, R. Housekeeper, C. Hahn, A. Dillon. ROW 2: B. Wenke, J. Rogers, S. Novak, B. Evers, J. Bowers, B. Ehlers. ROW 3: M. Revesz, S. McRae, J. Chamberlain. Accompanist, Nancy Coulter.

Members of the Mixed Chorus were: ROW 1: J. Housekeeper, J. Ferguson, S. Kirtland, G. Burrows, N. Detwiler, J. Button, B. Ehlers, F. Rahn, L. Campbell. ROW 2: M. Campbell, S. Fink, S. McColm, S. Dispenett, S. Hill, P. Jacob, R. Roach, K. Seay, C. Harnass, P. Shore, J. Hammerschlag, D. Casey, S. Forbes, N. Adkins, C. Davis, K. Oermann, L. Davis. ROW 3: R. Bailey, T. Walther, J. Fisher, J. White, N. Mager, T. Robb, K. Weldon, E. Shoemaker, V. Stabile, S. Stevens. ROW 4: B. Graves, C. Womack, J. Martin, B. Chilcoat, T. Dengler, C. Miller, J. Dickson.

The members of the Triple Trio were much in demand both for school functions and outside engagements. They were: ROW 1: Jane Ferguson, Barb Fulton, accompanist, Judy Housekeeper. ROW 2: Jeanné Heid, Flicka Rahn, Sandy Kirtland, Nancy Detwiler, Holly Zinsmaster, Gini Burrows. ROW 3: Jo Button, Ann Dillon, Lynn Campbell, Bonnie Ehlers.

Under the direction of Miss May K. Sneary, the basses, tenors, altos, and sopranos of the choral department combined voices in an April concert. The mixed chorus entertained with "Serenadeto Spring," "The Creation," and selections from Kiss Me, Kate. The boys' glee club, girls' ensemble, girls' glee club, Triple Trio, Devotional Choir, and Boys' Quartet also sang for this spring production. At Thanksgiving, the mixed chorus presented a reverent program of traditional songs, thus setting the mood for the coming holiday. With the 1961-62 season complete, the Mt. Lebanon choral department can look back on many delightful hours of harmony and entertainment.

Participating in the Girls' Glee Club this year were: ROW 1: J. Renton, R. Ott, S. Kirtland, L. Auner, M. Schade, L. Campbell, P. Rand, C. Tragesser, J. Sterling, B. Sollenberger. ROW 2: P. Mattis, T. Conomos, B. Shope, M. Larkin, D. Lewis, B. Hissom, G. Marlowe, M. Perrin. ROW 3: H. Brown, B. Vincent, B. Dean, H. Zinsmaster, C. McDivitt, S. Challinor, K. Schreiner, accompanist.

"Somewhere over the rainbow . . ."

OKLAHOMA! GAINS RECOGNITION AS A SELLOUT

Oklahoma! was the outstanding production of the music department of Mt. Lebanon High School. The popular Rodgers and Hammerstein score and the talent of the leads, Judy Hubbell, Kip Weldon, Judy Housekeeper, John Rodgers, Karen Seay, Skip McGrew, and John Brooks, combined to create a sparkling, professional presentation of the gay musical. Miss Sneary and the student assistants, Jo Button and Detmar Straub, deserve plaudits for their producing and directing roles.

"Many a new day will please my eye."

"Oh, Aunt Eller!"

"Poor Jud is daid!"

"He called me his little Persian kitten!"

BLITHE SPIRIT DISPLAYS THESPIAN TALENT

Noel Coward's Blithe Spirit, presented in the round by the Backstage Players, members of the Thespian Troupe, was a delightful success. The play evolves around the intervention of an eccentric mystic, portrayed by Maria Revesz, in the lives of Charles (Kip Weldon), his wife (Karen Seay), and the ghost of his former wife (Judy Housekeeper). The superb acting under the direction of Mr. Myers upheld the high Thespian tradition.

"Is anyone there?"

"I'm not the least bit interested in your tongue!"

Madame Arcati conducts a séance.

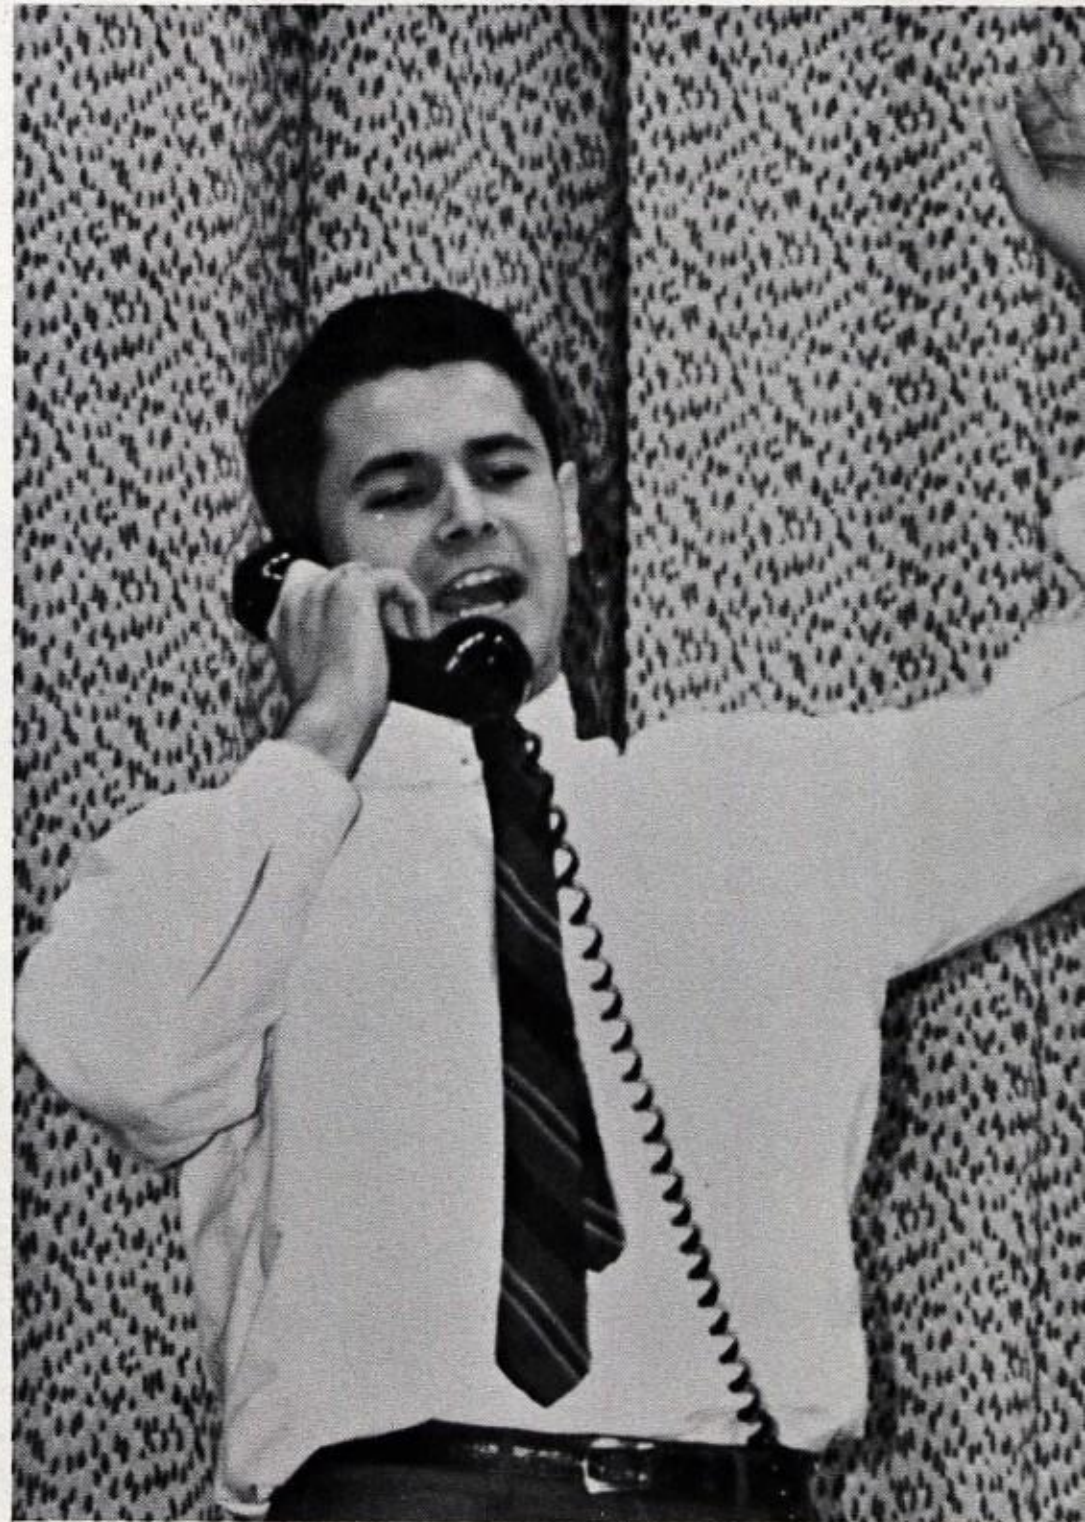

THE SENIOR PLAY DRAWS GOLDEN RESPONSE

Under the direction of Mr. Julian T. Myers, the Class of 1962 presented The Solid Gold Cadillac, the story of Mrs. Partridge, who rises from an insignificant stockholder in the General Products Corporation to chairman of the board. The play starred Gini Burrows as the unpredictable Mrs. Partridge and Dave Manoogian as the explosive Mr. McKeever. Fine auxiliary acting added much to the development of the farcical plot. The audience was amused when the play ended with Cinderella (Mrs. Partridge) in her enviable, but none-too-secure, position, fighting to keep her solid gold Cadillac from turning back into a subway.

"I had my tennis courts grated by a General Products bulldozer."

"NO! The French can't have it!"

Meanwhile, backstage . . .

"Mrs. Partridge's secretary speaking."

"Ladies and gentlemen, Mr. Alfred Metcalfe."

"And yet I was not always thus, the savage chief of still more savage men."

"Miss Logan is a weirdie, to say the least."

PAGEANT PORTRAYS UNIVERSALITY OF CHRISTMAS

The cast of the pageant gave Mt. Lebanon's Christmas a fuller meaning.

Backstage, Jo Button and Barb Fulton coordinated the voices of the chorus in the Christmas program.

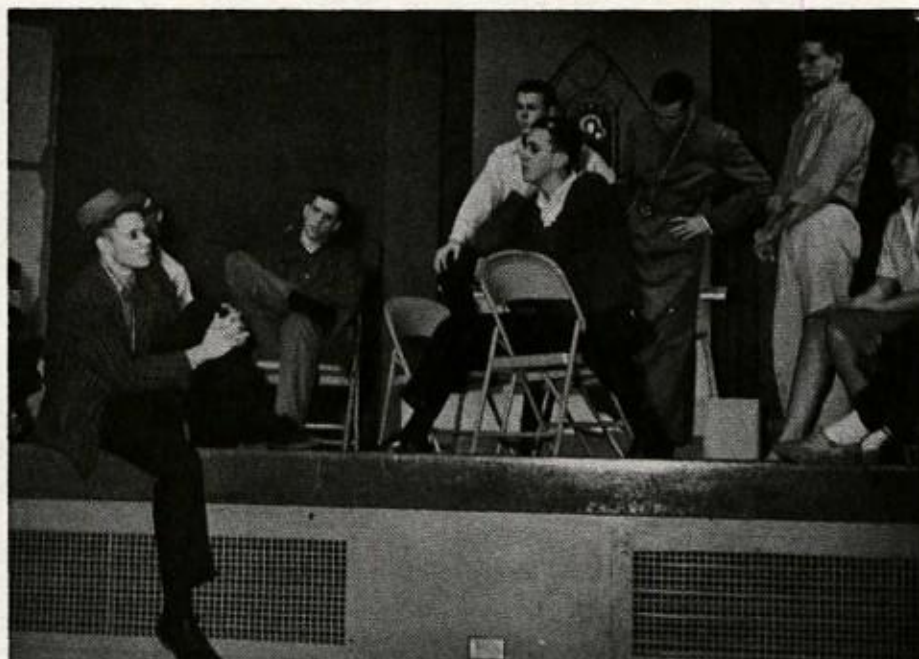

The 1961 Christmas program portrayed Christmas as a world-wide day of thanksgiving and joy. Scripture passages in Spanish, German, English, Latin, and French, combined with the hymns and carols of many lands, accompanied the portrayal of the events of Christ's nativity.

"Il est né, le divin enfant!"

JOAN OF LORRAINE CREATES INSPIRING DRAMA

An unusual dramatic production, Joan of Lorraine is the story of a play within a play. In a dual lead, Debbie Hartsough depicted actress Mary Grey and Joan, women who faced opposition with faith and high ideals. Dave Klaber portrayed the director of the inner play. Under the able direction of Mr. Julian T. Myers, the entire cast helped to make Joan of Lorraine a success.

"It's our destiny to be in the dark and yet go forward—to doubt our religions and yet live by them."

"All the great things in this world are brought about by faith."

Debbie Hartsough portrays a disillusioned Joan.

"You're our captain, and you can cry if you like."

"And we'll make a new world about the size of a star."

Members of the make-up squad were Mary Beth Anderson, Jeri Donahoe, Sandy Sterling, Karen Phillips, Rosalie Moran, Karen Seay, Joan Sherbondy, and Sally Service. This squad accentuated the personalities of our actors with gray spray or dark wrinkles.

Organizing and fitting costumes for Mt. Lebanon's dramatic productions was the responsibility of the costume committee. Joan Sherbondy, Betsy Nelson, Harriet Poel, Ann Williams, Joyce Fisher, Judy Foldes, Martha Lewis, Ann Dempsey, Ruth Groff, Anne Langreth, and Linda Rote were members.

Backstage, Mike Griffith, Chet Sandburg, Brad Clark, and Jeff McCollum rang the bells, played the records, and banged the gongs for the sound effects in our plays.

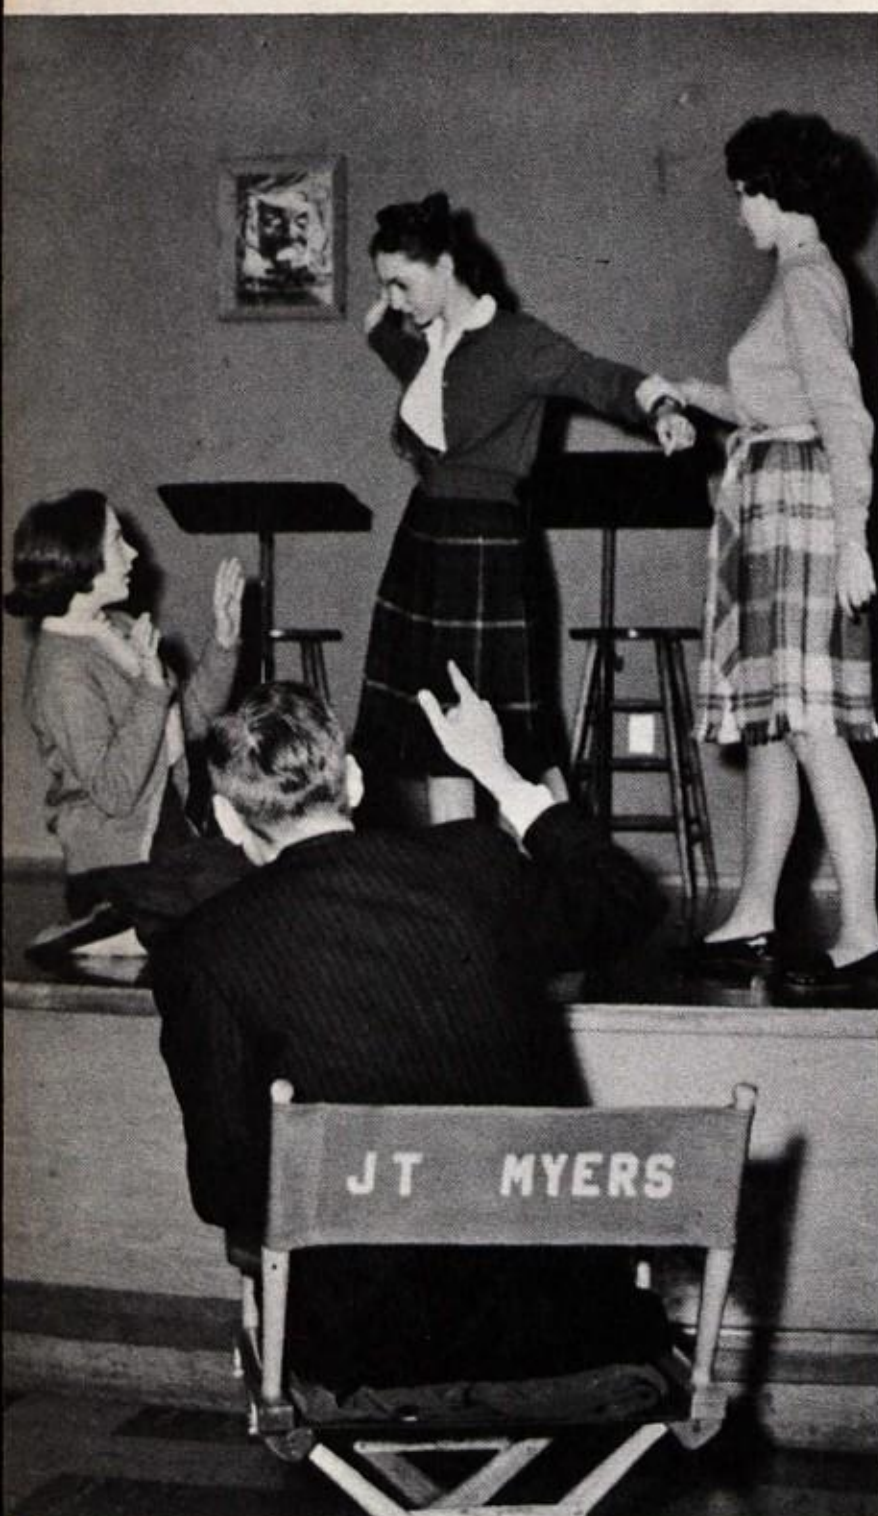

Obtaining and adapting properties, such as telephones and lamps, necessary for stage productions, members of the properties committee were Cora Sue Deal, Lynne Ricca, Willis Siegfried, Bob Geeseman, Tom Perry, Mary Ellen Haynes, Brooks Dyer, and John Miller.

Katie Jo Chivers, Karen Gaio, and Bethann Thornburgh were members of the scenery painting squad, which was responsible for posters, backdrops, and settings used in auditorium programs and dramatic productions.

The stage crew managed the lighting, curtain, and scenery changes for programs and plays in our auditorium. Members were John Morris, Jon Larkin, Tom Hearn, Bruce Fellows, Joel Perr, Joe Bates, John Pfann, John Detwiler, and Russel Steffey.

Karen Seay, Maria Revesz, and Mary Ellen Haynes, members of Mt. Lebanon's Thespian Troupe, combined action and expression in dramatic productions under the experienced direction of Mr. Myers.

The National Quill and Scroll Society honored Mt. Lebanon's editors with membership. Initiated at the annual meeting last spring were Robby Davison, Alan Mandel, Roberta Benz, Jay Livingston, Alice Schade, Jim Kaley, Sue Wilson, Susie Smith, Geoff Heron, Anne Goulding, Sheron Rock, and Babs Seamans.

Musical talent and interest initiated a Mt. Lebanon chapter of Modern Music Masters. Donna Casey, Kip Weldon, Jo Button, Bob Graves, and Marcia Service were members of Tri-M.

The debate team, including Ken Andrews, Lynn Saul, Sue Alexandre, Jack Wolford, and Laura Wallace held practice debates to obtain success in their interscholastic tournaments.

Steve Moore, George Dillon, Debbie Hart-sough, Sandi Moore, Geoff Heron, and Jean Housekeeper gained experience in extemporaneous speaking, debate, and other forms of public speech through membership in the National Forensic League.

Members of the three grade-level guidance councils planned programs for homeroom vice-presidents to present to the student body.

Senior council members were Adele Orr, Jane Flemm, Judy Housekeeper, Susie Hanke, Don Parsons, Bob Geeseman, and Tom Copeland.

Mary Kay Kern, Louise Shakarian, Dick Browning, Jane Falk, Rick Walker, and Molly Small worked on the 10th grade council.

Lynn Saul, Sue Hill, Karen Tracy, Alan London, Warner Hession, and Dick Close prepared programs for the juniors.

Recording 1743 students' activities was the job of the honor award committee, including Marcia Service, Debbie Hartsough, Gini Widmer, Cathy Anderson, and Lynn Boucher.

The achievement committee collected and filed publicity concerning Mt. Lebanon graduates. Joan Batey, Bitsey Bates, Peggy Kessler, and Tom Doorley were members of the committee.

Members of the Future Teachers of America, under the leadership of Lynne Ricca, Jean Alexander, Jane Hammerschlag, and Vicky Wiehn, increased their knowledge of the teaching profession through stimulating meetings and gained valuable experience by actual student teaching.

First semester Future Nurses of America officers, Judy Dimock, Judy Housekeeper, Betsy Skinner, Karen Thomas, Flo Tishbein, and Natalie Kempa, planned interesting and informative meetings about the various fields of nursing.

The varsity cheerleaders radiated enthusiasm while cheering our teams on to victory. Members included Lynn Ricca-captain, Sally Service, Wendy Turner, Sandy Berg, Barb Clinton, Cathy Duff, Cathy Taylor, and Judy Mulach.

The officers of the Future Homemakers of America club, Mary Jane Drew, Sally Dispenett, Nikki Cicchino, Ruth Larson, Sherry Novak, and Judy Serena, planned service projects and homemaking activities.

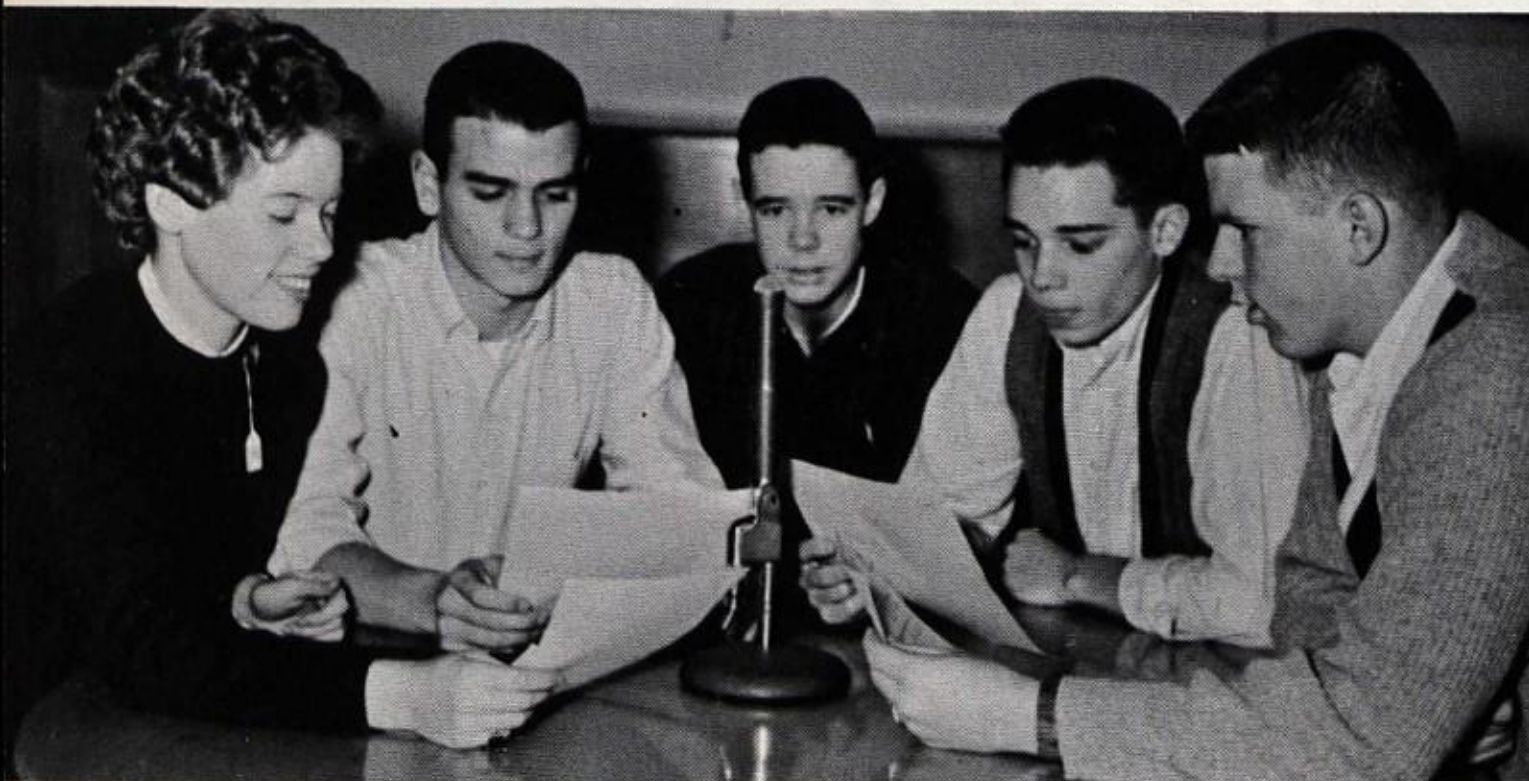

"There are no more morning announcements this afternoon!"

With friendly voices and helpful information, Sandi Moore, Don Seymour, Tim Smith, Collier Smyth, and Jeff McCollum were often heard giving morning announcements.

The Thursday morning broadcasts of the devotional squad provide the opportunity for spiritual thought through a variety of programs. Members pictured are Britta Schein, Marian Malarkey, Sonja Marmont, Jim Dittmar, and Sue Wilson.

Helen Landgraf, Lin Stewart, Kathy Bingham, and Marti Gummer, members of the Red Cross squad, worked on cartoon books for homebound students and parties for crippled children, veterans, and underprivileged patients.

Shirley Pile, Carol Lammert, Betsy Skinner, Flo Tischbein, and Lillian Fassett were members of the medical squad, which helped the nurses take temperatures and keep "patients" comfortable.

Chet Sandburg, Tim Smith, Jim Campbell, Evan Melhado, Ed Jones, Emerson Ray, and Bill Hartsough pulled the many complicating levers which control the electric output, making public address announcements possible.

Members of the chemistry squad, Lee Cramer, John Erskine, Dave Frame, Rick Hill, Ed Jones, Bill Soler, Don Schwarz, Joann Hofrichter, and Sally Ringham, set up apparatus for experiments and kept the labs and stock-room in good order.

Among other intriguing duties, physics squad members operated the computer. Members Jeff McCollum, Bill Jackson, George Haight, John Negele, and Randy Burroughs had the responsibility of keeping the physics lab ready for use.

Meetings conducted in Spanish helped members of the Spanish club gain fluency in the language. Visiting speakers discussed Latin-American customs with members, Jean Douds, Debbie Hartsough, Ed Weber, Tom Doorley, Dave Phillips, and Pat Cincotti.

Intense concentration precedes a checkmate.

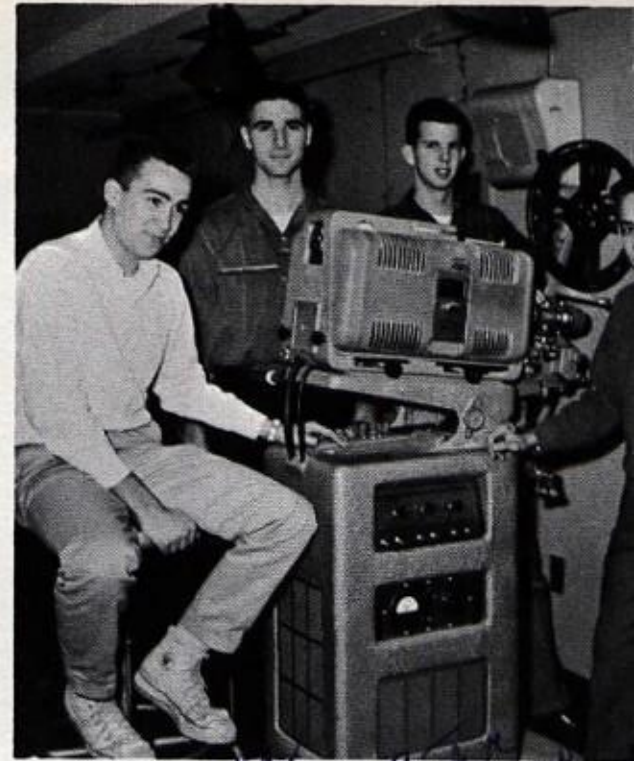

The chess club provided enjoyment and mental stimulation for participants Ken Andrews, Joel Karnofsky, Warner Hession, John Leonard, and Gil Young.

Another attendance record is pigeon-holed.

The projection squad sacrificed study halls and evenings to show educational and entertaining movies to class groups and school organizations. Members of the squad were Phil Judge, Dave Rosenblatt, Russel Steffey, and Jim White.

Delivering messages, distributing absentee lists, and collecting absentee class cards were a few of the tasks of the attendance squad. Lynne Ricca, Nancy Wellingham, Joann Hofrichter, Betty Beardshall, Lillian Sowa, and Sue Matthews were members of this squad.

Don't forget to remember the trip to the zoo. You spoke up for the young life etc. I hope you talk to the school board about the best of luck. Love you, Betty.

P.S. Remember the fun at the zoo. Love you, Lillian Sowa, Betty Beardshall, Joann Hofrichter, Nancy Wellingham, Sue Matthews.

The hospitality squad welcomed new students and visitors with friendliness and helpfulness. Gini Burrows and John Martin were members of the squad.

Directions and general information were given by the boys' information squad. Members were Dave Manoogian, Kip Weldon, Bob Geeseman, Don Delisi, and Don Parsons.

Candy Harness, Fran Falorio, and Carmela Finelli were members of the lost and found squad, which handled everything from Virgil to dirty sneakers.

Dora O'Hara, Susie Hanke, Betsy Gessler, Bonnie Ehlers, Saralynn Hogg, and Suzie Lefler, members of the girls' information squad, helped visitors and lost students find their destinations.

The boys' usher squad, including Ivan Kunic, Tim Smith, Bob Watchorn, and Don Parsons, directed traffic in the auditorium on Wednesday afternoons.

By punching tickets and distributing programs, Marty Lewis, Joann Hofrichter, Elise Ford, and Gini Burrows ushered for the Carnegie Lectures and evening auditorium programs.

The cheery ushers dismiss us to our sixth period classes.

On the job during evening athletic events, the members of the athletic usher squad, Barton Will, Robby McNally, Paul Bigley, Ricky Couch, and Ed Stafford, collected tickets and acted as ushers for the spectators.

The check-room squad took care of wraps at all functions held in the auditorium. The members were Jackie Kramer, Karen Jordan, Melissa Booth, Phyllis Yeager, Missy Dinneen, and Peggy Senz.

Supervising the parking situation before and after sports events, the members of the parking squad consisted of Jack Froelich, Russell Steffey, Tom Kiefer, and Alex Lewis.

Ken Matticks, Tom Heeter, Barry Lavery, and Kathie Williams were Cafeteria Hosts and Hostesses. Their main duty was keeping cafeteria traffic orderly.

A cafeteria caper results in reprimand.

The Ways and Means Squad sold the Milky Ways, hot dogs, and popcorn which gave us the nourishment to walk home from school or to cheer at football games. Members are Connie Wicken, Ruth Martin, Marda Campbell, Bill Jackson, Dan Campbell, Julie Stangl, and Maria Revesz.

Dan Iams, Missy Wurzbach, and Ron Fouse worked to have the 1961-62 Student Directories available for Christmas card lists.

Assisting the librarians with writing overdue book notices, charging books, and getting magazines, members of the Library Squad were Diane Kline, Jeff Simpson, Betsy Skinner, Pat Sable, and Sara Hackenberg.

Responsible for trimming the Christmas tree and decorating the gym for dances was the decorating squad, which included Bob Bayers, Claudia Irwin, Ann Dempsey, Pam Fish, Cora Sue Deal, and Reed Agnew.

Marion Malarkey, Fred Jones, and Ken Coleman, members of the social committee, planned, organized, and promoted school-sponsored dances.

The bulletin board squad displayed eye-catching posters, team pictures, and activities advertisements in the halls. Members were: Jeff Simpson, Mary Ellen Haynes, Mike McKee, and Jim Kanters.

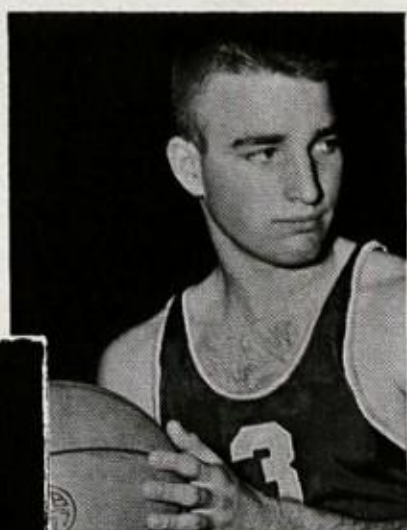

Members of the art squad, Ann Wharton, Paul Jenkins, Martha McKinley, and Chuck Culbertson, arranged various art displays in the high school.

BLUE DEVILS RECORD THRILLING SEASON

The 1961 Mounty football team finished the season with a 6-3 over-all record and a 5-2 record in W.P.I.A.L. Class AA competition. With the exception of a crushing defeat at the hands of Washington, the Blue Devils recorded a thrilling season. Beaten only by Westinghouse, who ultimately became the city champions; Wilkinsburg, who remained undefeated during the regular season; and Washington; the 1961 Mounties scored impressive triumphs over Peabody, Trinity, Canon-McMillan, Baldwin, and Munhall. The injuries of 207-pound tackle Kurt Wentzel and Jim Daniell, the leading scorer, left their impressions on an already light team. Junior backs Smitty Cornell, Tom Snaith, Wayne Phillips, and Bill Zimmerman and senior Cliff McMillan provided many fine runs. Seniors Paul Anderson, guard, Jim Daniell, quarterback, Dave Klaber, end, and Joe Toth, tackle, all made the Western Class AA Football Conference All-Star Team. The 1961 Blue Devil team will be remembered for its explosive runs, its radical double wing offense, and its rugged spirit.

Slamming into the ball carrier, Bruce Coull and Joe Toth create a fumble.

HARRIERS REBUILD FOR NEXT YEAR

Hard running McCall races towards the finish line.

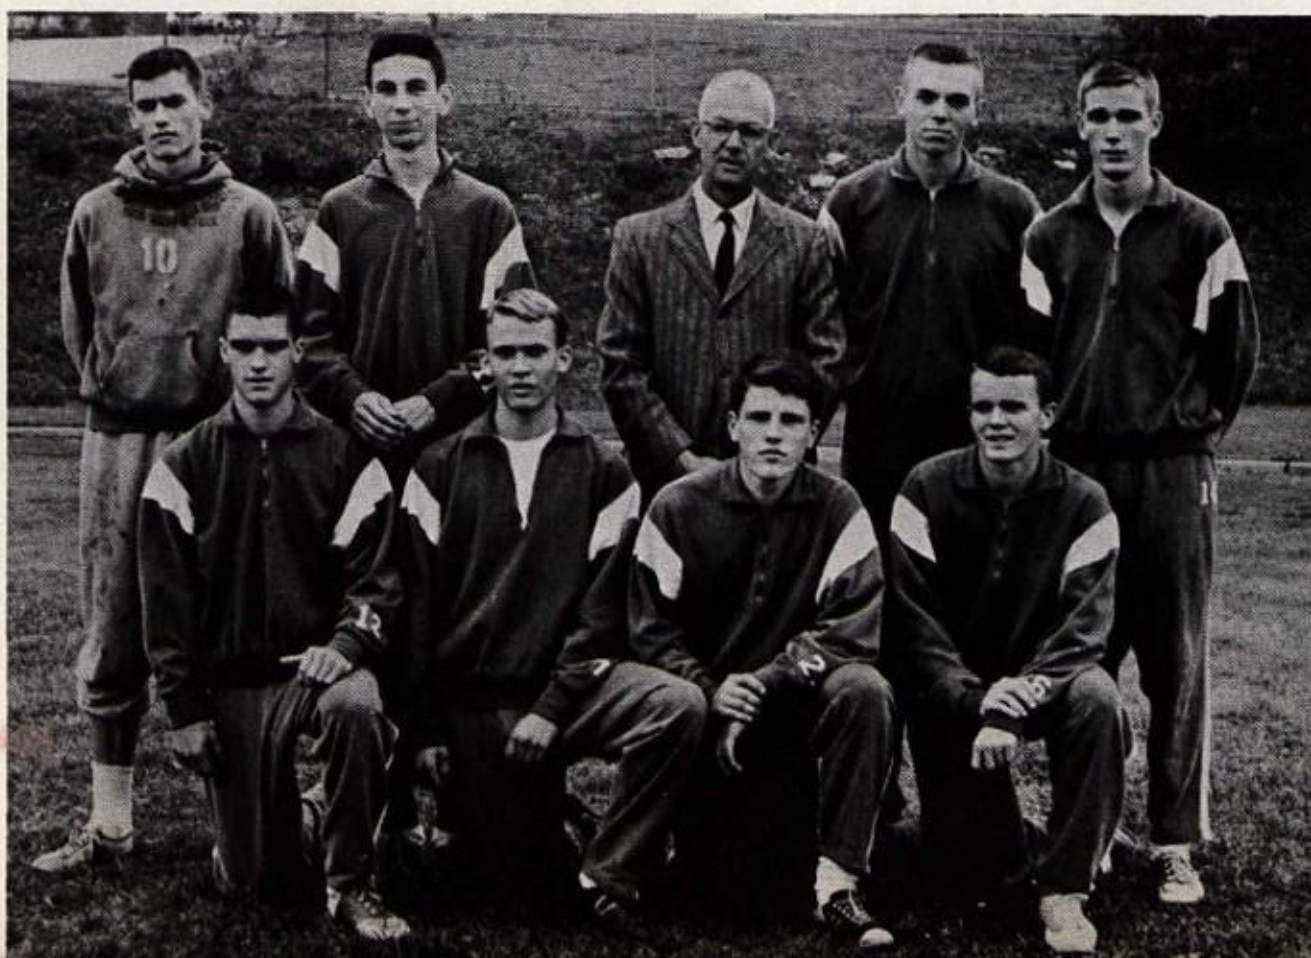

Paced by two juniors, Woody McCall and Fran Shor, the varsity cross country team turned in a winning season. Having lost all but one letter man from last year's squad, the team, consisting mainly of underclassmen, concentrated on rebuilding for next year. Plagued by injuries, Coach Mollenauer's Harriers failed to qualify as a team for the State Championship Meet at Penn State. Woody McCall, however, qualified individually to run at University Park. Senior captain Jim Dittmar turned in a fine varsity season as did the other team members Ed Weil, Ivan Kunic, Dan Hrisak, Jim Headley, and Gregg Springer. Losing only two seniors, the team looks strong for the coming season.

BASKETBALL TEAM RETAINS SECTION TITLE

Outjumping his opponent, Bennett tips the ball to McNally.

The 1962 Blue Devil basketball team had a very successful season, posting a 20-4 overall record and an 11-1 record in section competition. Captain Bob Bennett, the leading rebounder, led the team in scoring with 17.3 points per game. Roth McNally, with his accurate shooting, was second highest scorer. In his second year of team activity, Waltz proved to be the team's backcourt ace, and also led the team in total assists. Jim Lynch and Charlie Cobaugh proved steady and dependable members of the backcourt while Lee Davis, a newcomer to the team, performed with commendable skill. Andy Sharky and Drew Anthon ably replaced Bennett and McNally under the boards, and Don Seymour and Smitty Cornell did their jobs capably when seeing action. Overall, 1962 proved to be a fine year in basketball for the school, the fans, and Coach Richard Black's basketball team.

WRESTLERS PIN DOWN SUCCESSFUL SEASON

The Mounty grapplers, headed by Coach George Lamprinakos, turned in their first undefeated season in section competition. Paced by the undefeated trio of Drew Bachman (23-0-1), Jerry Kemp (12-0), and Richard Ruben (15-0-1), and supported by seniors Mike Bourne (9-4), George Chakos (11-1-1), Jeff Kumer (6-1), Richard Layton (9-1), George Thuransky (4-6) and underclassmen Ron Bailey (11-2), Dave Hicks (7-6), Charles Huettnner (0-13), Dave Lambillotte (7-4), and Bill Zimmerman (11-2), the team posted an 11-2 record.

Bachman and Ruben emerged as section champions, as the Mounty matmen captured second place in the annual section tournament. Bachman went on to become Mt. Lebanon's first state wrestling champion.

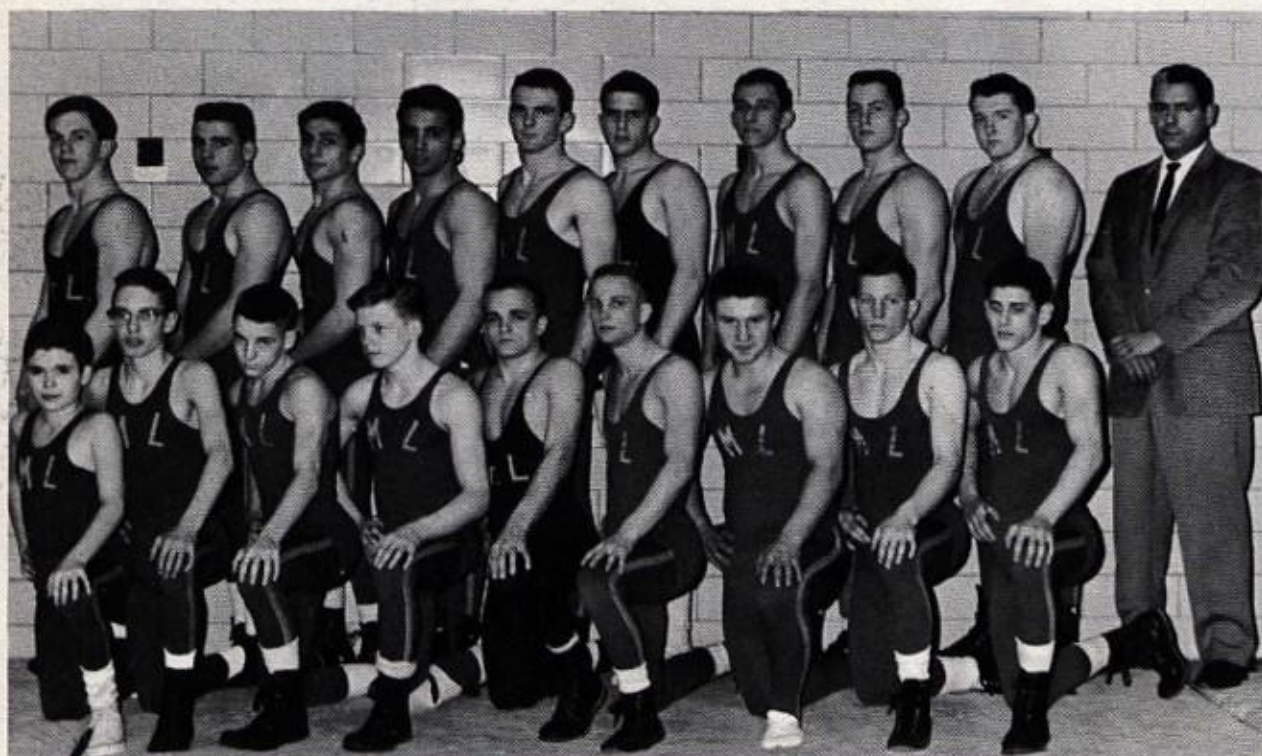

The J.V. team, coached by Richard Jones, also had an exceptional year finishing with an 8-0 record.

Zimmerman strains to overpower his opponent.

In a tight arm-hold, Layton holds the top position.

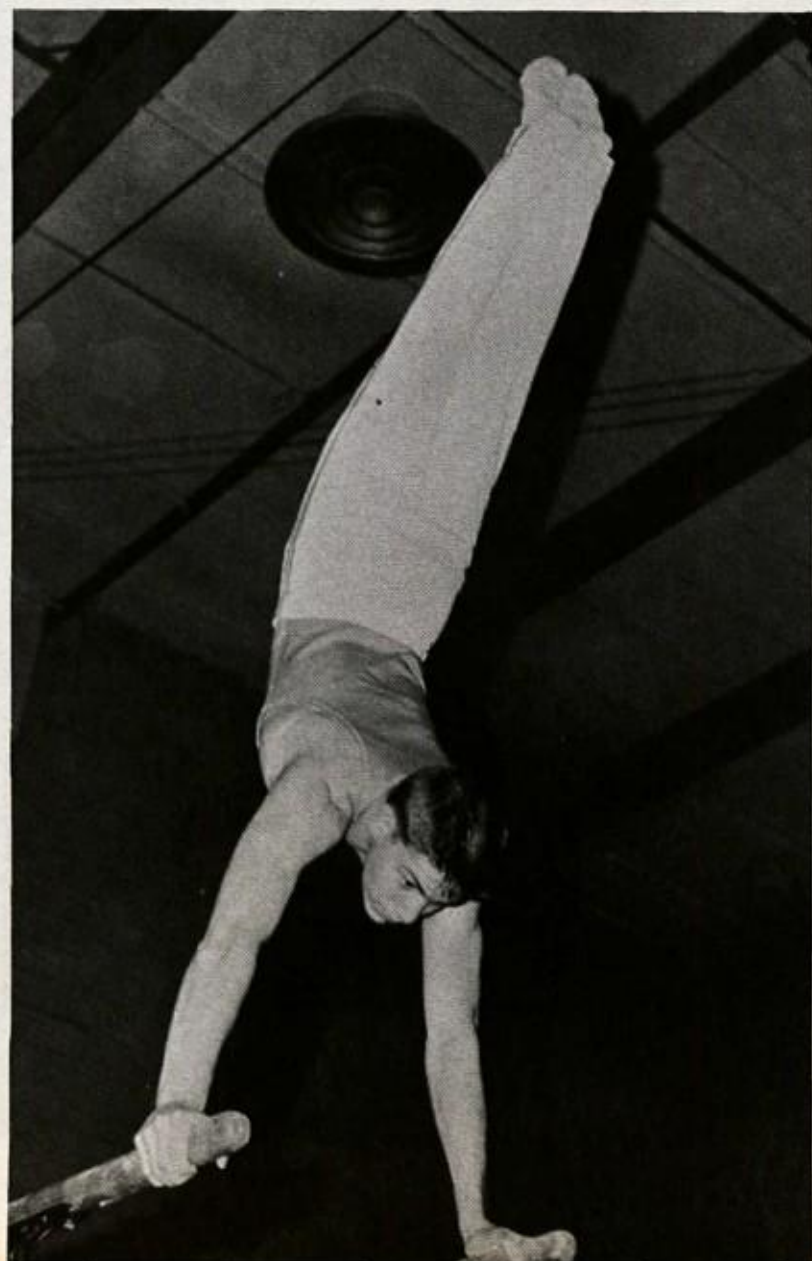

GYMNASTS ENTER W.P.I.A.L. COMPETITION

Coach Joseph Pagnanelli, tri-captains Ed Russ, Mitch Youngling, and Gary Leach, and other members of the gymnastics team worked and trained hard to achieve a successful season. Performing with skill and dexterity, the boys engaged in W.P.I.A.L. competition and visited Pitt Stadium. The team also played host to the Slippery Rock State Teachers' College gymnastics team which gave an exhibition of their ability before the student body.

W.P.I.A.L. Championship—Mt. L., First

Western Regional Championship (PIAA)—Mt. L., First

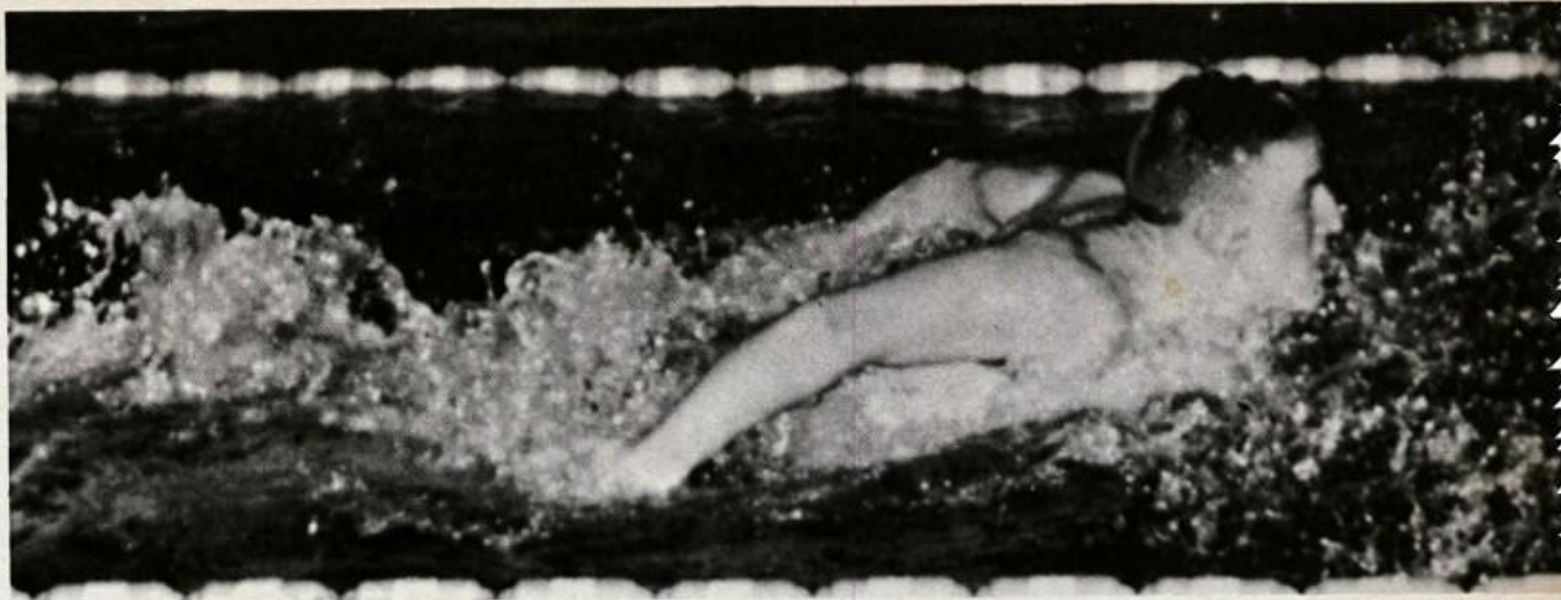

State Championship (PIAA)—Mt. L., First

The Mt. Lebanon swimming team finished an outstanding season with 18 wins and 6 losses. After winning the Grove City Invitational Relay Championship, the team captured first places in the W.P.I.A.L. Championship, the P.I.A.A. Western Regionals, and the P.I.A.A. State Championship with Rick Toucey, Larry Shekell, Tom Trethewey, and the Free Style Relay team setting five new records. Other outstanding members of the team included seniors Stew Early, Jim McCaslin, Corky McGarry, John Blum, Ken Kurtz, Bob Burdick, and Dave Nicholas and underclassmen Bob Felt and Mike Taylor.

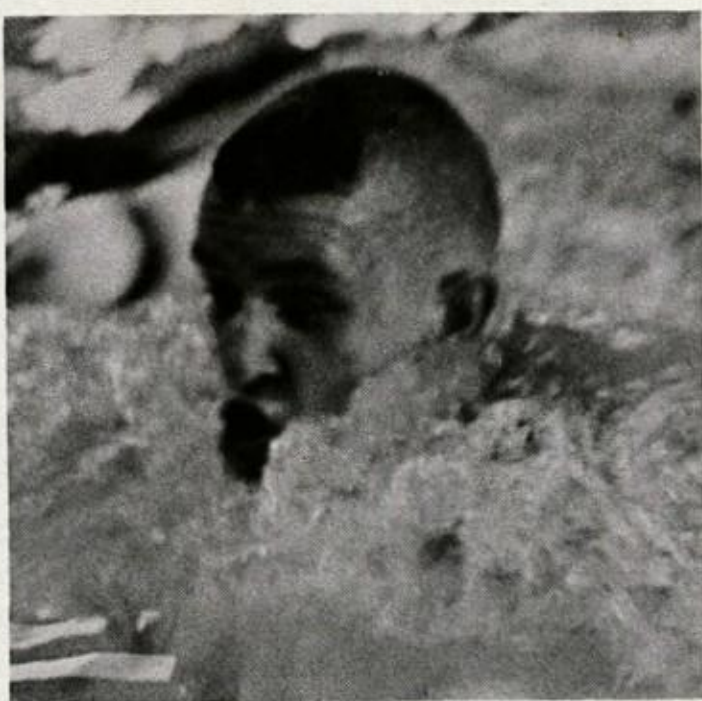

Tri-captains John Lindsey, Tom Trethewey, and Rick Toucey attribute the team's brilliant success this season to the long, diligent hours of practice under the excellent guidance of Coach Bill Grant and assistant coach and diving instructor, Will Saunders.

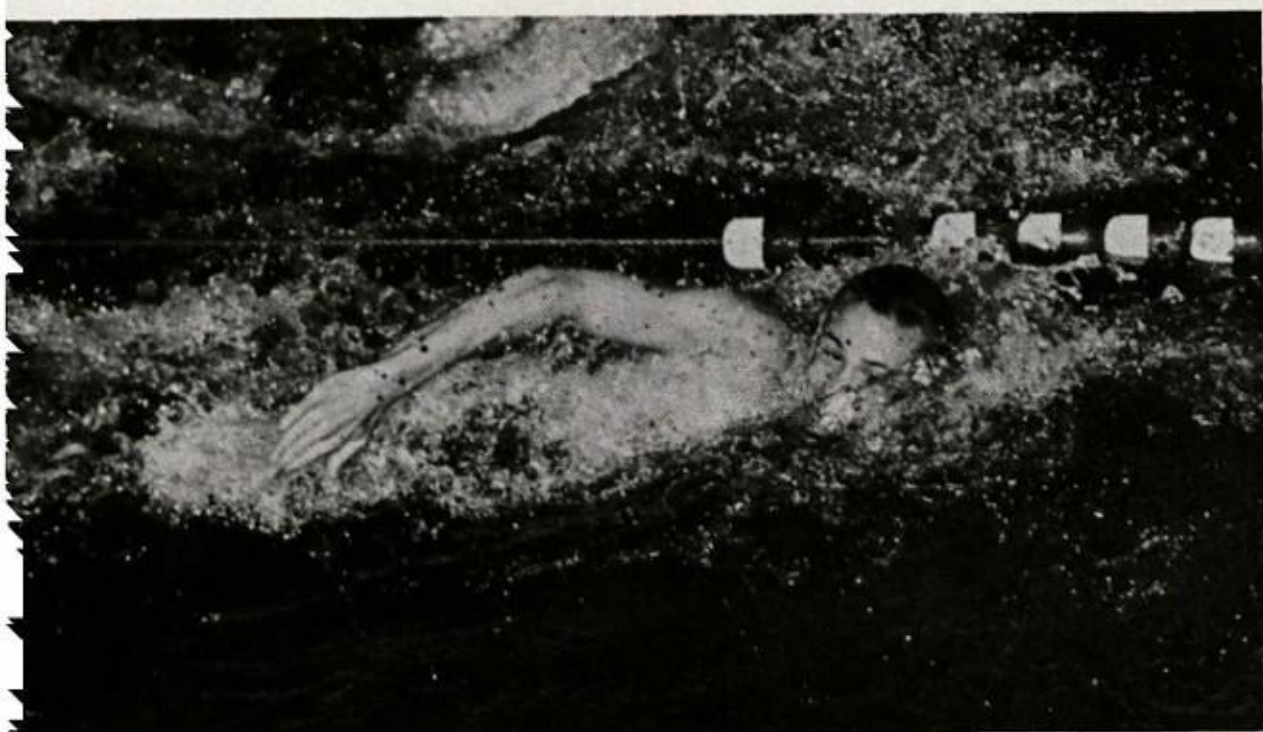

Diving proved an important part of the 1962 team's success. At the top, Collins attempts a reverse somersault; below McCaslin executes his specialty, a half-twist.

Churning up the water, Toucey plunges ahead.

Tom Trethewey, perennial victor in the 100-yard breast-stroke, swims toward another record.

With a powerful stroke, Felt strives for a victory.

'61 TRACK TEAM EXTENDS VICTORIES

Tensing for the contact, Greer thrusts the baton into Hathaway's hand.

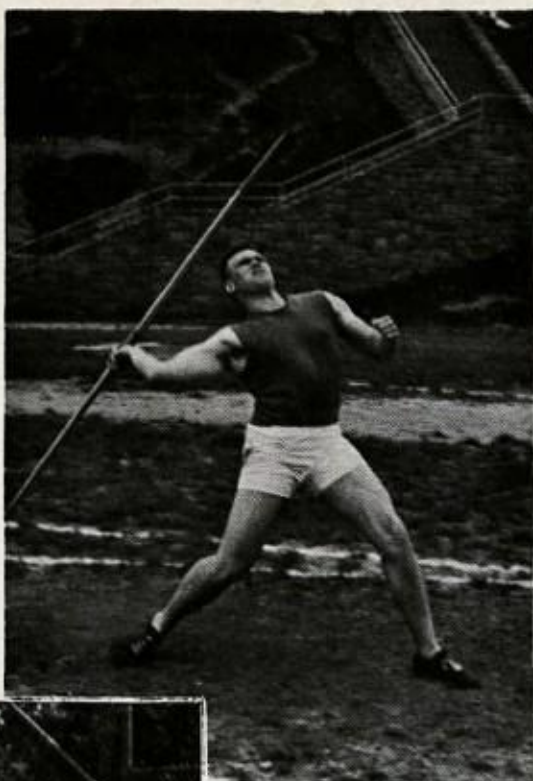

In 1961, the Mounty Track Team extended to 128 their string of victories in consecutive dual and triangular meets since 1944. Coached by Mr. Mollenauer, the team also won four major championships: the Allegheny County Meet, the Canon-McMillan Relays, the W.P.I.A.L. Relays, and the Mt. Lebanon Invitational. Two team members captured individual W.P.I.A.L. championships: Jim Stevenson in shot put and Kurt Wentzel in discus throw. The runners also had a good season. John Weisiger broke the old Mt. Lebanon records in the mile and 880-yard runs. A new record was set by the two-mile relay team with members Jim Dittmar, Bob Crofford, John Wright, and John Weisiger at the Tri-State Coaches Indoor Meet. The 440-yard relay team of Willis Siegfried, Frank Battaglia, Alec Lamont, and Hugh Elliott also established a record at the Mt. Lebanon Invitational Meet.

'61 GOLF TEAM WINS EIGHT MATCHES

The golf team, led by Captain Dave Minotte and coached by Mr. Burrows, ended the 1961 season with eight wins, one tie, and only one loss. The teams from Upper St. Clair, Chartiers Valley, Carnegie, and Bethel each suffered two defeats at the hands of the Mounty team. Because the team tied Baldwin and lost the playoff, Mt. Lebanon placed second in the Section Five Competition.

'61 BASEBALL TEAM RECAPTURES W.P.I.A.L.

Seen from behind the fence, a Mounty batsman awaits the pitch.

Winning their fifth W.P.I.A.L. Section 3 title in six years, the 1961 Mounties compiled a fine record. Led by Lynn Foltz, the team's Most Valuable Player, the Mounty sluggers won ten and lost only two during the regular season. Boosted greatly by the pitching of Andy Alex and Jack Howe, the team won their first playoff game, losing only to Burgettstown.

The 1961 tennis team turned in an impressive 15 and 1 record, losing only to Edgewood in the W.P.I.A.L. finals. A great part of the success in '61 was due to the great play of state champion Jack Waltz and teammates Chuck Koepke and Dave Klaber. With all three of these boys returning, Coach Doak is predicting an even bigger season in 1962.

The Mounty riflemen, under the direction of Coach John Neal, fired perfect scores of 500 in every match for a perfect 8-0 record. Captain Mary Ann Herr, seniors Jerry Bokan and Laurie Weisbrod, and juniors Bitsey Bates, Joy DeSensi, and Lee Willis formed the core of this strong team. The team's efforts turned toward the state championship until Munhall, Lebo's arch rival, upset the Mounties 1000-999. With only a few seniors graduating in June, Coach Neal will again have a top team in 1963.

MANAGERS ASSIST TEAMS TO VICTORY

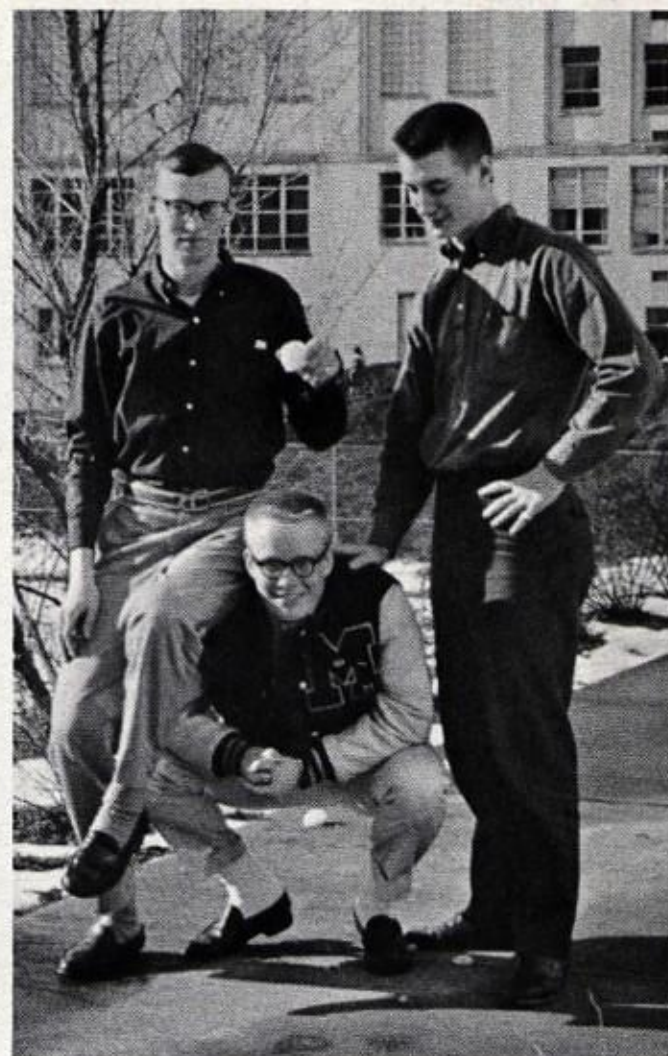

Friendly rivalry between the wrestling and rifle managers is demonstrated as Barry Lavery strangles Bob Ferguson.

Girls' basketball manager Sue McCoy and boy's manager Ray Whiteman discuss that all important piece of equipment—the ball.

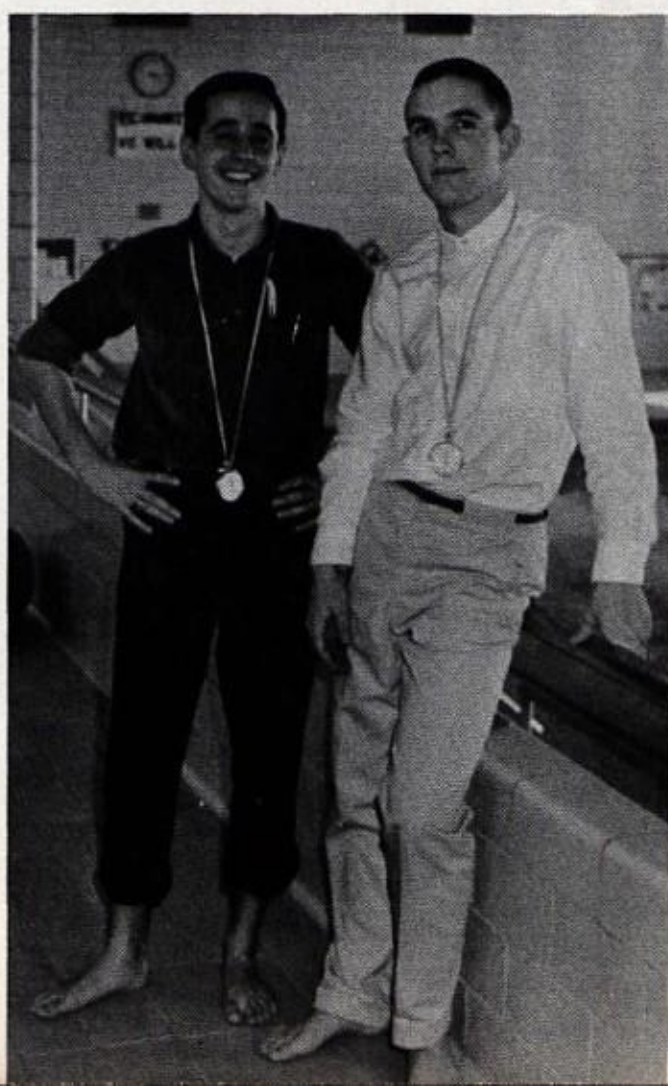

The managers of Mt. Lebanon's athletic teams comprised an unheralded but vital part of the sports program. Their duties included keeping accurate statistical records, attending to minor injuries and handling equipment.

Mr. W. C. Moore, aided by Kirk Borland, coordinated the entire athletic program and kept the financial records for all eleven varsity sports.

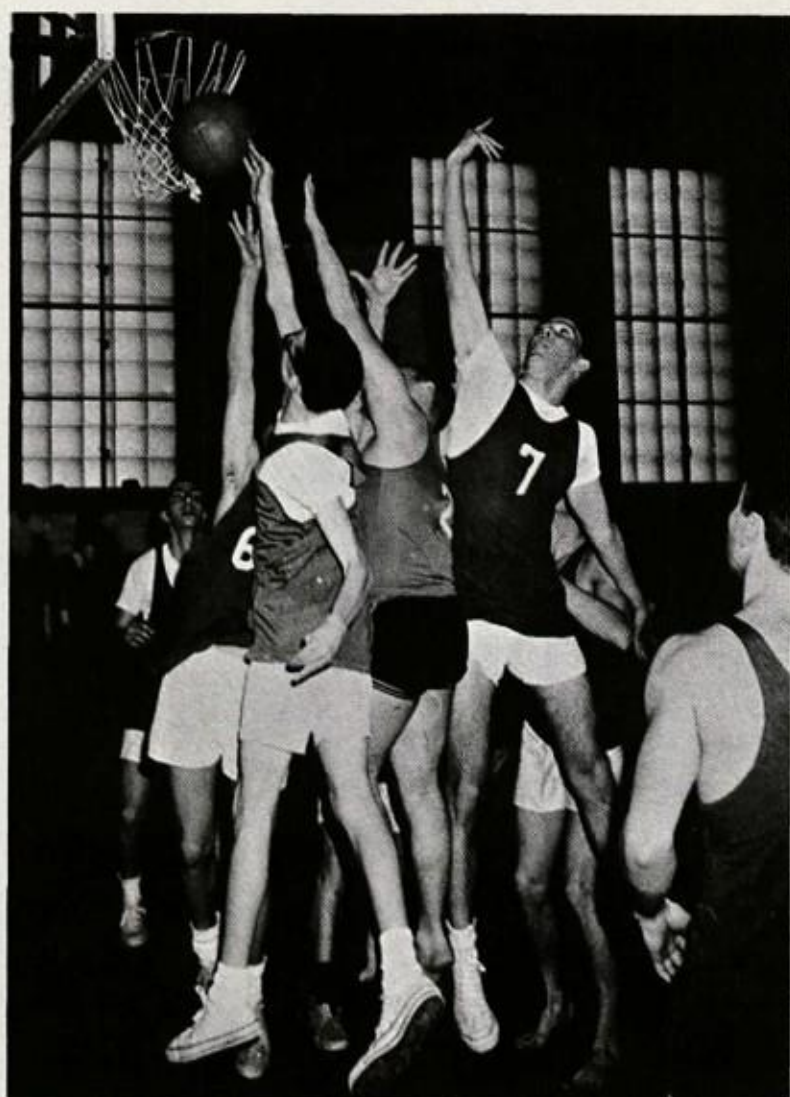

Senior manager Kirk Borland watches while Cross Country manager Bob Anderson lets the sky fall on unsuspecting John Pasuit, football manager.

The Intramural Program promoted competition and sportsmanship through fierce but friendly homeroom rivalry. Team play and co-ordination combined with enjoyment and relaxation as the north gym set the scene for the intramural contests. The program stimulated the athletic interests of the participants and contributed to their physical prowess.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The sophomores look forward to their year, 1964. Scholastic achievement and activities participation created for them a solid foundation from which they and their school can advance. These underclassmen brought with them a fierce school spirit, class pride, and desire to work which presented an example even to upperclassmen.

Patty Fitch, Betsy Nelson, Margie Heid, Donna Deeter, Ann Walker, Marion Becker, Patty Bayers, and Sue Beachler, our J.V. cheerleaders, combine spirit and beauty to cheer our teams on to victory!

JUNIORS STRENGTHEN FOUNDATIONS

The class of '63 applied their potential by cheering at football games, applauding at school plays, participating in activities, and studying the Civil War, The House of Seven Gables, Boyle's Law, French grammar, and the quadratic formula. The ability to accept responsibilities and enjoy high school life typifies the enthusiasm of the junior class.

"All you need is a beard, George, and you'll make a perfect Santa Claus!"

eat Jan, really had not being in your an serious day. Thanks not letting me come. On of the few times we had fun - I hope we continue to be great friends. I know you'll have a ball at O.H. - too bad like won't be there. Of course I'm sure that a petty thing like that isn't going to ruin your social life. Whopper -
 When you come home remember me - come over.
 Don't be too rough on the guy of Dunny + Don.
 Don't take too many showers I fully dressed. Remember all the slumber parties - M A K I D A - All the movies - Pajama Game.

Chatter and laughter enliven a holiday open house.

The Senior Class honored Lynne Ricca and Rick Toucey for their enthusiastic school support and spirit.

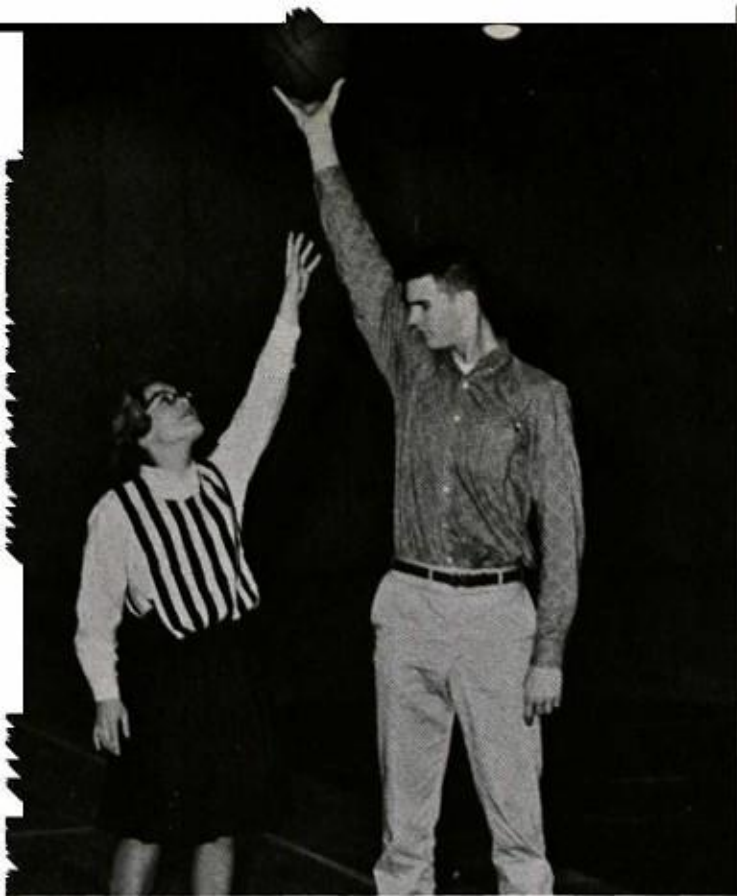

The Seniors honored Sue Oram and Dave Klaiber both for their leadership qualities and for being the best all-around students.

OUT- STANDING

Selected by the Class of '62 for their work in student activities, Babs Seamans and Dave Manoogian worked continuously and participated diligently in school functions.

Gretchen Carter and Bob Bennett were chosen as best in sportsmanship on the basis of competitive spirit, a sense of fair play, and participation in sports.

Honored for their high scholastic achievement throughout high school were Sandi Moore and John Martin.

SENIORS

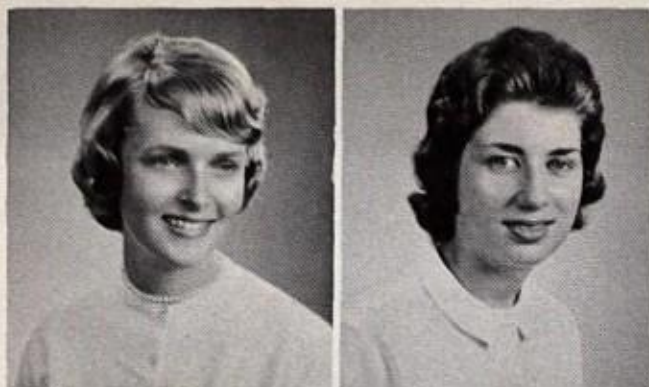

Jan,
 Certainly enjoyed your company in various art class and study halls - American Government, etc. So until next senior day, best of luck in all you do. Be good,
Anniepooh

Kip Weldon and Anne Wharton won places as seniors with outstanding creative ability.

Barb Clinton and Bruce Coull were selected as the friendliest seniors.

ALMA MATER

'Neath cedars stately,
Midst hills so bold,
Stands our Mt. Lebanon,
Realm of Blue and Gold,
Radiant with splendor,
Valor, virtue, and truth,
Moulder of our destiny,
Guardian of our youth.
Ever our praises shall ring,
Alma Mater, for thee.

Charles Ruch, '32

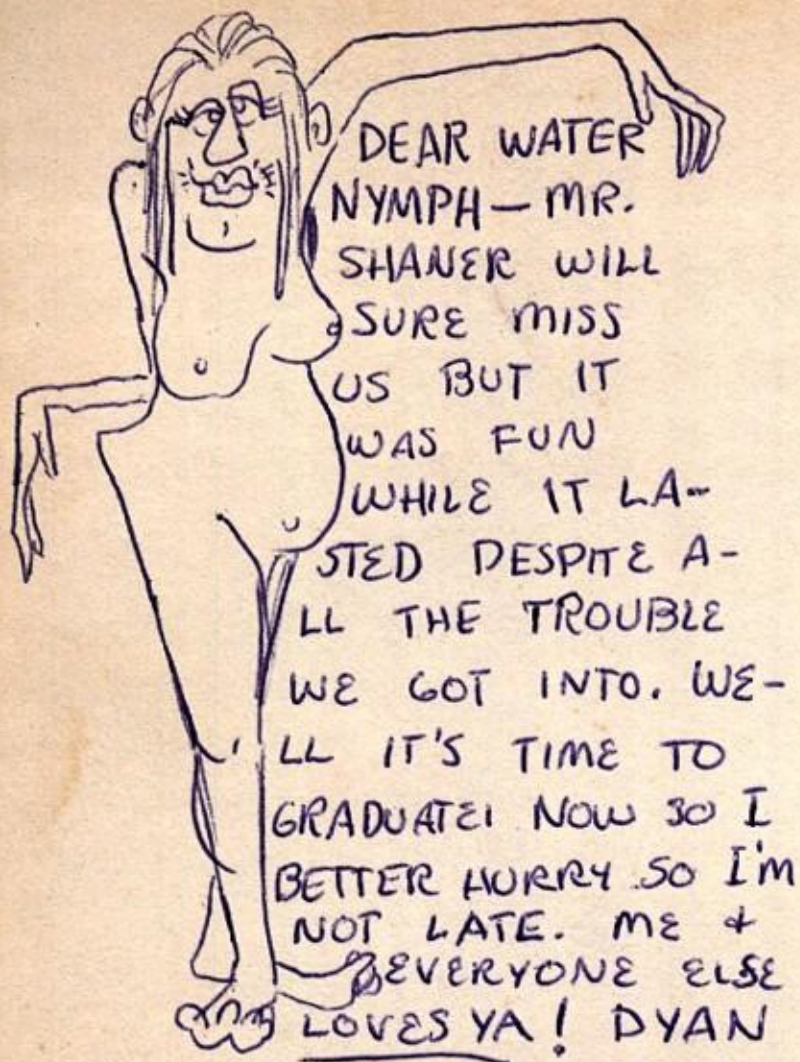

Jan, will want
 I would have ended long with those at good old sub. I sure know
 you. been wonderful
 in the best of everything
 the future.
 Love,
 Julie

Jan,
 always remember
 Mr. Slater & those stupid art classes
 I'll see ya' this summer!
 Love
 Mary Ann

Jan, Lots of luck to a wonderful girl. Have fun next year and keep up that good art work.

Love ya

Jan,
Have loads of fun and frolic in the future and always be your non-conforming self!
Loads of luck

Jan,
Will you tried!
to be the greatest friend a gal ever had and do you know what you succeeded

Love

Jan,
Well, this is the 4th year
I've written in your book.
So once again I want to wish you the best of luck --- only this year, I'll wish you at Ohio U. just to be different. Always remember the great class of '62 and Miss Jean's
12-5's.

Dearest Janie-Poo

I hate qush -
But you know I'll always love you anyway.

Much much -

Jan

Good luck to a swell home room
suddy. I know you'll go far.
Mike

Jan, Remember all the good times we have had in our days at school. Good luck at school next year and in everything you do.
Mr. Raines is so nice mmm
Mitch

Jan,
It's been fun being with you in Speed's (Fighting and George's) class.
You are really a ball. I never forget you & Mike & Kate talking about day, men, males, and Markette's tight dress. Best of luck at Connelly's truck!!!!
There will never be another School Class like ours.
Best in life to you.
Marsha

Jan, Life is full and
may we really live
those years that will follow. Be good and have much happiness.
Kindest regards,
Love to you,
Hendrick
